BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards for sanction & transmission to Compt. the J-A bill of himself for journey performed beyond the State & halt of more than 10 days in Mysore during March 1913

NOTES AND ORDERS.

- 1) The halt of more than 10 days was made in Mysore on duty with the Milt's Sec? (H. H. the Yuvaraja)
- 2) The trip to Bombay was

The half of the money 10 days at my me maybe sanctioned but there seems to be no reason why the journey to Bombay should be sanctioned. I should not like to say it was in the interests of public service that he had to go to Bombay when H. H. the Yuvaraja had his private suite - If he had paid it would be a charge upon the Palace.

The question as to whether the t. a. of H. H. the Yuvaraja's suite will be borne by the State has been raised by me in a D. O. to the Dewan.
Please await the decision in the matter. As in any case the officer is to get the t. a. the bill may be sent on to Comptroller for audit with suitable instructions regarding incidence i.e. the amount to be kept under objn. till the question is settled.
